

15 Years Ago! How World Ignored Jehovah's Witnesses' Warning on Coronavirus

The deadly Coronavirus, like the Spanish Influenza, is currently spreading like a wild fire around the world and is taking tolls on lives of people on its path. This deadly disease might sound strange and new to many, including even health care providers and experts, but, actually, Jehovah's Witnesses, a religious group, had sounded a warning of its emergence 15 years ago, in one of its magazines, Awake!

Writing on the subject "The Next Global Epidemic, WHEN?" the December 22, 2005, edition of Awake! did not only raise the alarm that a pandemic virus might emerge in China or a nearby country, it also warned that it might emanate from an animal and could surface from antigens or virulence factors derived from animal influenza viruses.

Photos of the front and inner pages of the Awake! magazine has since gone viral.

(<https://i1.wp.com/www.thenewsnigeria.com.ng/wp-content/uploads/2020/02/447865A2-2AFE-4897-9CDC-7255DD2FFDD3.jpeg?ssl=1>)

The Awake! edition

The magazine quoted the medical journal, Vaccine, of 2003, which warned: "It has been 35 years since the last influenza pandemic, and the longest interval between pandemics recorded with certainty in 39 years. The pandemic virus may emerge in China or a nearby country and could surface from antigens or virulence factors derived from animal influenza viruses.

"It will spread rapidly throughout the world. Several waves of infection will occur. Morbidity will be extensive in all age groups, and there will be widespread disruption of social and economic activity in all countries. Excess mortality will be evident in most, if not all age groups. It is unlikely that health care systems in even the most economically developed countries will be able to adequately cope with the demand for health care services."

Could It Come Back?

According to many experts, it is not a question of if such a vicious flu virus will return but of when and how it will return. In fact, some expect a significant new influenza outbreak every 11 years or so and a severe one approximately every 30 years. According to these predictions, mankind is overdue for another pandemic.

The medical journal Vaccine reported in 2003: "It has been 35 years since the last influenza pandemic, and the longest interval between pandemics recorded with certainty is 39 years." The article continued: "The pandemic virus may emerge in China or a nearby country and could include surface antigens or virulence factors derived from animal influenza viruses."

The Vaccine article predicted concerning the virus: "It will spread rapidly throughout the world. Several waves of infection will occur. Morbidity will be extensive in all age groups, and there will be widespread disruption of social and economic activity in all countries. Excess mortality will be evident in most if not all age groups. It is unlikely that health care systems in even the most economically developed countries will be able to adequately cope with the demand for health care services."

Just how alarming is such a scenario? John M. Barry, author of the book The Great Influenza, provides this perspective: "A terrorist WEP nuclear weapon is every national politician's nightmare. A new influenza pandemic should be."

True to this prediction, the influenza pandemic began in China, from where it has spread to other parts of the world. And according to the warning, even with its huge economic base, China has not been able to cope adequately with the sensor health care services.

For instance, it was reliability gathered that price of common nose mask made in Nigeria, has tripped in recent times, from N500 per pack to N1500, due to the hot demand for it from China.

Just how serious is an Influenza pandemic? The issue of Awake! warned of the seriousness of an outbreak of an Influenza like Corona Virus, when it quoted John M. Barry, author of the book, The Great Influenza, who said: "A terrorist with a nuclear weapon is every national politician's nightmare. A new influenza pandemic should be."

Perhaps the whole world would not have been in this precarious situation it finds itself now, if governments, medical experts, health care providers and bodies like the World Health Organization, WHO, had taken seriously the warning sounded by the Awake! magazine and took proactive steps to nip it in the board.

Awake!, a quarterly magazine published by the Christian Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, is the second most widely circulated magazine in the world, after its sister publication, The Watchtower, with a total circulation of 93,354,000 copies in 222 languages of each edition. It is renowned for its in-depth and accuracy in research on whichever subject it decides to delve into.

The Jehovah's Witnesses might not be as popular and loved by many, as they have received a lot of backlash from individuals and other religious organizations due to their doctrines, but certainly, they deserve respect for their zeal in their worldwide preaching and Bible educational work.

Numbering over 8,683,117 in over 240 lands, these Jehovah's Witnesses have always warned of the of pestilences and deadly plagues, as prophesized by Jesus Christ, using Luke 21:11 and Revelation 6:8 as references.

The Awake didn't predict this, they are just saying what the bible predicts. The bible just says that man is choosing to ignore the wisdom of god, so even when they think they have a problem handled it will come back to bite them in the butt.

Yes, other secular and sacred sources have also stated the generic obvious. WT literature is full of debunked stuff now (they used to say organ donation is cannablism, etc.).

Watchtower 1967 November 15 pp.702-704

"Sustaining one's life by means of the body or part of the body of another human... would be cannibalism, a practice abhorrent to all civilized people. ... It is not our place to decide whether such operations are advisable from a scientific or medical standpoint. ... Christians who have been enlightened by God's Word do not need to make these decisions based simply on the basis of personal whim or emotion. They can consider the divine principles and use these in making personal decisions as they look to God for direction, trusting him and putting their confidence in the future that he has in store for those who love him."

That was over 50 years ago, STAY UPDATE Last October, three-year-old Chandra Sharp was admitted to a hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, U.S.A., with a heart that was not only enlarged but also failing. She was undernourished, her growth stunted, her weight only 19 pounds [9 kg], and she needed a heart transplant. She was given only a few weeks to live. Her parents agreed to the transplant but not to blood transfusion. They are Jehovah's Witnesses.

This was no issue with the surgeon, Dr. Charles Fraser. The Flint Journal of Michigan reported on December 1, 1993: "Fraser said the Cleveland Clinic and other medical centers are becoming adept at performing many surgeries—including transplants—without the infusion into the patient of other people's blood. 'We have learned more about how to conserve blood, and how to prime the heart-lung machine with solutions other than blood,' said Fraser." He then added: "Some specialty hospitals have for decades been doing major cardiovascular operations without blood transfusions. . . . We always try to do surgery without (transfused) blood." On October 29, he performed the heart transplant on Chandra without blood. A month later Chandra was reported doing well.

That position, as the article you quoted shows, is left for personal conscience. I personally agree with the cannibalism view. However, your avoiding the issuing is an attempt to ignore the fact that JWs did accurately predict this current medical emergency. That is understandable because once you are not a JW I do not expect you would have an open mind.

William Lance Huget where in the Bible is your religion?

JWs are chosen people, PROOF in Isaiah 43:9,10 as proclaimed by God himself amidst all people and nations.

Jesus is a JW, PROOF at Revelation 1:5 his disciples are JWs as well as expected because their leader is, PROOF at Acts 1:8
Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph and Moses are JWs, PROOF at Hebrews 12:1 and Hebrews 11: 4, 7, 8, 11, 20, 22, 23

Just food for thoughts, when referring to Jehovah God, please use the correct form for God. Remember that the Bible throughout its pages, refers Satan, Baal, Marduk just to name a few, as gods (with a lowercase g) whereas Jehovah, the ONLY TRUE GOD should always be with a capital G.

JW=Jesus is created being, Michael the Archangel. He came invisibly in 1914, rose as a recreated spirit creature, etc. God is solitary, unipersonal, limited in knowledge and locality, etc.

Biblical, historical, orthodox Christianity: God is tripersonal/triune, Father/Son/Holy Spirit (one God by nature with 3 personal distinctions). He is omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent.

Jesus is YHWH in the flesh. He has the names, titles, attributes, worship, position, deeds of God, not creature. He rose bodily/physically from the dead. He is one person with two natures, the invisible made visible. He will yet return in the future visibly. He is uncreated Creator, not creature/angel/mere man.

Yehovah, plenty of videos on line documenting that to be the correct name. Sounds a bit different, but spelling is nearly identical. The Yahweh is a distraction Jews promote to keep the name hidden. But now that is been exposed their are plenty of Jewish supported videos going crazy to keep people fooled.

"Nehemia Gordon talks with T-Bone about the staggering number of Hebrew manuscripts they have looked at to date, compared to the number of manuscripts in which they found Yehovah with full vowels. They also share some interesting anomalies regarding the name and touch briefly upon finding Yehovah with full vowels in New Testament Hebrew manuscripts, as well as how Yeshua's name is written in these documents." WT over the years has had ridiculous scientific views that were false. Their views on blood transfusion are unbiblical and unscientific and have killed 1000s. Their pedophilia coverups and lawsuits are internationally known. Their harsh shunning leads to suicides and ruined families. Their false teachings lead people away from Christ and eternal life. Selectively quoting secular sources does not make them prescient and other groups have said similar things. The truth about 'the truth'. <http://www.jwfacts.org> (<http://www.jwfacts.org>)

You cannot refute these credible research sites so you resort to ad hominem attacks. WT forbids members from independent research so you will never know if you are wrong. You will be indoctrinated into a false, ever-changing system.

I am a concerned biblical Christian. Many JW's are Pharisaical or hypocritical. The things you accuse others of are in your ranks (hence all the disfellowshipping that goes on). Hundreds of millions of genuine Christians have higher standards than JW's and live up to them (not all do). The bottom line is still the false teaching you promote, not how strong or weak any given adherent to a religion is.

Where did you get your misinformation on the subject "blood"??? You say its unbiblical, the word is Unscriptural. And you are so incorrect. Read from your own Bible these three Scriptures! Genesis 9:4; Leviticus 7:26 and Acts 15:29 and let me know what Jehovah says on the matter.

The digestive system is distinct from the circulatory system. Orthodox Jews do not forbid transfusion. The sanctity of life trumps legalisms. JWs have Pharisaical misinterpretations that are unbiblical and unscientific. The teaching originated in the 1930s by one ignorant person and has changed many times over the years (supposed new light). JWs who have died or were disfellowshipped would be alive under the new rules (that essentially take most of the blood). JWs now take blood portions (so they are not abstaining) vs whole blood, but do not donate (selfish, hypocritical). JWs for blood reform has better research:

William, in this context Digestive system is not distinct from circulatory, they are both way of consumption, In a hospital, when a patient cannot eat through his mouth, he is fed intravenously. Now, would a person who never put blood into his mouth but who accepted blood by transfusion really be obeying the command to "keep abstaining from . . . blood"? (Acts 15:29) To use a comparison, consider a man who is told by the doctor that he must abstain from alcohol. Would he be obedient if he quit drinking alcohol but had it put directly into his veins?

The below guiding principle is very clear brother,,,

Acts 15:28, 29: "The holy spirit and we ourselves have favored adding no further burden to you, except these necessary things, to keep abstaining from things sacrificed to idols and from blood and from things strangled [or, killed without draining their blood] and from fornication. If you carefully keep yourselves from these things, you will prosper. Good health to you!" (There the eating of blood is equated with idolatry and fornication, things that we should not want to engage in.)

It is an anachronism to think the Bible was referring to modern transfusions that did not exist back then. Physiologically, digestive and circulatory are distinct. You make much of abstain, but fail to consider other principles. JWs now take most of the blood by way of products except whole blood. To abstain from a pie does not mean eating only the crust or the filling, but not eating any of it. Ethyl alcohol can reverse a methyl alcohol poisoning. Too much by mouth or in the veins could kill you; a titrated amount may be beneficial. The sanctity of life trumps legalisms. Orthodox Jews who are legalistic see no biblical prohibition to saving life (injecting alcohol may kill you, but receiving blood can and does save many, so there is no analogy).

JW deaths are needless and more JW lives would have been saved than died. Globally, far more lives have been saved than those who had issues with contaminated blood in the early days of AIDS era. Out of millions who have received blood annually, only a handful die directly related to it (far more deaths with other procedures and meds that still help more than hurt). In major trauma, there is no substitute. JW's practically take most of the blood anyway given their new teachings and changes over the years. The problem is that there is no biblical or scientific reason to not take blood. WT is a far bigger killer cult (including kids sacrificed to their lies) than Jim Jones in Guyana. Your statement that many more have died than saved is beyond ridiculous. Millions are given transfusions with a relatively low complication rate. The sanctity of life and saving it trumps legalisms from a Pharisaical cult that introduced the teaching in the 1930s (what took Jehovah so long to give this light and why has it changed over and over meaning dead JW's who be alive under new light?!). Mind control is lethal.

William Huget where in the Bible is your religion?
No long unsupported answers.
Prove always from the Bible.

JWs are chosen people, PROOF in Isaiah 43:9,10 as proclaimed by God himself amidst all people and nations.

Jesus is a JW, PROOF at Revelation 1:5 his disciples are JWs as well as expected because their leader is, PROOF at Acts 1:8

Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph and Moses were JWs, PROOF at Hebrews 12:1 and Hebrews 11: 4, 7, 8, 11, 20, 22, 23

JWs are chosen and favored, therefore true worship. Look how they grow in number and succeeded in preaching God's Kingdom. They have the most translated website, two magazines with highest publication rate in the world, top number of Bible studies in the world etc because the true God blesses them.

Muslims say the same thing despite the unscientific things in the Qur'an. Older WT literature had absolutely ridiculous things that were unscientific that would embarrass you now. Their changing modern views on blood are unbiblical and unscientific. Quoting secular sources that are accurate does not mean WT or God is the source of the information.

It is anachronistic to say transfusions are biblical since they did not exist. JWs did not adopt the view until the 1930s (one man's ignorance; what took Jehovah so long to reveal it) and it has changed many times on the details (dead JWs would now be alive under so-called new light). Catholics have extra/contrabiblical ideas and often do not know their Bibles. This is why many JW's with simplistic responses are ex-JW's (leave one authoritarian group for an even more autocratic one). Catholics have essential, salvific truth like the Deity and physical resurrection of Christ, but are wrong on more peripheral issues (sacraments, Mary, etc.). JW's are wrong on essential, salvific truths. It is possible to be a Catholic who knows, loves, trusts Jesus leading to eternal life. It is not possible to be a Christ-denying JW and have hope for eternal life.

JW's have a different, counterfeit Christ, Michael the Archangel (2 Cor. 11:4). Mormons have a counterfeit also with their plurality of gods and that Jesus is an evolved man who became god and was the product of Father and Mary having sex. Muslims say He is a mere man. Biblical Christians say He is God-Man, one person with two natures.

Diametrically opposed, mutually exclusive views are not equally true, salvific.

JWs say everyone else is wrong. Non-JWs say they are wrong. Their defective Christology is unbiblical and another gospel leading to eternal anathema/condemnation (Gal. 1:6-9).

Jehovah's Witnesses (JWs) predicted the end of the world, IN WRITING, numerous times. Not once did they come true. They truly are known for their 'False Predictions' the world over.

JWs are taught that they alone are TRUE Christians and that all other people not JW will soon be destroyed. This is no exaggeration.

JWs will allow their own children TO DIE rather than accept a life saving blood transfusion even in severe medical emergencies. It has already happened THOUSANDS of times!

Just like this mother died unnecessarily!

JWs NEEDLESSLY die for this sorry blood policy today.

From the same organization that has an entire 100 + year history of similar bad and embarrassing policies.

As a 15 year active JW (and an elder) here is my own story:

http://www.bibletoday.com/archive/JW_Disassociation_letter_by_Vinny.h
(http://www.bibletoday.com/archive/JW_Disassociation_letter_by_Vinny.h)

JWs used to forbid Vaccinations and Organ Transplants (calling a life saving transplant "Cannibalism") for a combined 33 years.

This JW elder refused a kidney transplant and DIED only to have JWs say transplants are now OK 2 years later.
<http://ajwrb.org/debbie-shards-story> (<http://ajwrb.org/debbie-shards-story>)

JWs enforce extreme shunning for any JW that decides to leave their religion or who sins without showing enough repentance to the elders.

I have literally seen parents cut off all ties with their children solely because the kid did not want to remain a JW but went in another direction.

Even ex-JWs who leave the religion on their own, are 100 percent truthful, sincere, love God, pay taxes, help others and more are still SHUNNED by all current JWs and marked as godless, proud, sinning apostates. The Awake magazine recently called them "mentally diseased".

And MANY contemplate suicide because the penalties of losing everything are TOO MUCH TO TAKE.

But an honest question is: Why do so many JWs leave after being one time followers?

As I eventually found out, the JW religion did say, IN WRITING, that the end would come in 1914 and then again in 1925. Was Jehovah directing all that? 1914 and 1925 came and went! They were proven false predictions. Period.

They also said the end very likely would happen in 1975 and even commended (in the watchtower) witnesses for selling their houses and pioneering because of it.

But 1975 came and went!

They also said (for many decades) that the end would come before the generation born in 1914 passed away. In fact up until 1995 it was written inside each Awake magazine cover. Only they then had to change that meaning as well (including the Awake masthead) because that generation CAME AND WENT TOO.

I was an active JW (and elder) for 15 years before leaving because of the blood policy 13 yrs ago. Today I'm shunned by all JWs simply because I left the religion.

Most JWs accept everything the Watchtower teaches and says as "food from God". Just like I did.

Most believe God has chosen the Watchtower Society as his "channel", which provides food from God Himself to their religion and ONLY their religion.

But an honest look at the facts of the JW religion shows God has not chosen the WT for anything!

Take a LOOK: <https://jwfacts.com/watchtower/changed-watchtower-teachings.php>
(<https://jwfacts.com/watchtower/changed-watchtower-teachings.php>)

ALL FROM THEIR OWN LITERATURE WITH DATES & PAGES TO SEE FOR YOURSELVES!!!

Pages and pages of mistakes, embarrassments, false predictions, medical disasters, weird science, doctrinal failures and more for over 100 years now!

Obviously 'GOD' would not get things wrong like this. Obviously 'GOD' did not provide bad food like that for their entire history.

But most JWs have no idea about these things. They're told to stay away from anything critical of their religion.

For example: Was God's spirit with JWs when they said Organ Transplants were a "conscience matter" in 1961?

OR,

Was God's spirit with WT when they THEN SAID Organ Transplants are same as "Cannibalism" in 1967 and forbid them?

OR, was God's spirit with the WT when they THEN SAID Organ Transplants are NOT the same as cannibalism in 1980 and now allow them?

Was God behind all those changes each time? Did ((GOD)) get all those things wrong each time? How many JWs like that elder above DIED by refusing kidney transplants, only later on to be told they're OK to have now?

Which is why some end up taking their lives due to losing their family or feel compelled to speak out about it, like me right now.

And because I walked away JWs are demanded to shun you for life (including your very own family).

Examine this religion and ask as many questions as you can!

Vinny

Of course you didn't finish reading it. It's called cognitive dissonance, and you shut out anything that goes against your strongly held beliefs. It's a known psychological self-defense mechanism. That doesn't make your beliefs true. I am (technically still) one of Jehovah's Witnesses as well. That doesn't mean that I am gullible, or want others to do my thinking for me.

The biggest issue with your comment is that you totally miss the mark on who / what someone despises. The vast majority of ex-witnesses do not harbor any kind of ill will toward any Witnesses, but rather toward the organization that lies to them. It means very little to me personally whether or not you are ever able to see that you've been lied to by your religion, aside from not enjoying seeing people be duped.

But here's two quick questions for you regarding blood transfusions. If first-century Christians were told to abstain from blood, what indication do you have that it meant to abstain from life-saving medical treatments, when such treatments would not be discovered for nearly 2,000 years? The argument about not injecting alcohol into your veins to abstain from alcohol is silly. So let's look at it logically, and herein lies my second question. Why would Jesus, who you hopefully see as the authority in all things "Christian," say to the Pharisees, "Who of you, if his son or bull falls into a well, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?" (Luke 14:5) or "If you have one sheep and that sheep falls into a pit on the Sabbath, is there a man among you who will not grab hold of it and lift it out?" (Matthew 12:11). In both gospel accounts, we see Jesus referring to the Jewish principle, pikuach nefesh, which in short states "that the preservation of human life overrides virtually any other religious rule." And breaking the Sabbath was punishable by death, even if one's sandals were simply too heavy, and they were considered to be working.

I once had a worldly friend plead with me that if my child were to need a transfusion to save their life, to make the choice that saves their life. That's precisely what Jesus is stating, in both gospel accounts. Saving a life comes before following a law, especially a man-made law that had no medical context until nearly 2,000 years after it was written.

One of the last verses in the entire bible states, ""I am bearing witness to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this scroll: If anyone makes an addition to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this scroll; 19 and if anyone takes anything away from the words of the scroll of this prophecy, God will take his portion away from the trees of life and out of the holy city, things that are written about in this scroll."

From the bible itself, I urge you to not make a decision that is not scriptural, and that could cost you, or someone you love, their lives. All that said, I'm an atheist, but I can see plainly that there is nothing scriptural about sacrificing your children, or your own life, to satisfy your religious beliefs.

Take care, and if you ever want to talk about the bible more, I'm always up for discussion.

So Vinny, before becoming an elder you did not know any of this information? Or did you know it and still accepted to become an elder? So, were you an ignorant elder or a hypocritical one? I am not judging, just wondering.....

Please be careful when speaking positively of Jehovah's Witnesses. They are a high control cult that are permissive to pedophiles and actively protect them, as well as murderers or any other criminals in the rank and file. Please visit jwfacts.com for more information.

Jehovahs witnesses are never an occult group.u people are stupid liars.most of u deceived me on the internet when i was learning the bible.and i nearly stopped studying with them,something that has helped me stop abusing drugs and abusing alcohol.and has help me build a family life.onething i noticed about u people is that u never say anything positive about those people,only negative,and that is a sign of hatred and religious discrimination.when u ignore the positive side of someone and talk negative about them.God will punish u people for that.

Founder C.T. Russell had masonic connections, used pyramidology for setting dates of Armageddon. WT has appealed to spirit medium (former Catholic priest) Johannes Greber and his perversion to support their Jn. 1:1 a god error. This guy got the info from demons and it agrees with WT. Denying the Deity of Christ is demonic.

JW, Mormon, Islam, etc. can have positive behavioural benefits for their followers since they are adopting some Christian or biblical principles. The bad with JWs (false doctrines leading to hell, harsh shunning leading to suicides, innocent kids dying from unbiblical/unscientific blood transfusion issues, pedophilia coverups, ruined family relationships and psychological problems due to the controlling nature of WT, etc.) far exceeds the good (that they also have in common with much larger false groups). Their lack of charitable impact outside their own members in favour of standing in front of carts being deceived and deceiving is not a sign of truth. Governing Body, former presidents, etc.

have a pathetic track record of false prophecies, nonsensical changing teachings, etc. Any given JW may be fine and sincere, but sincerity does not create truth. Those who objectively study the truth about 'The Truth' are unlikely to join or remain (millions have left).

Mason, the ONLY person that walked the Earth who was perfect, was Jesus Christ. If you're looking for perfection in ANY religion, you are going to be highly disappointed! Most people who look for God, were murderous, a drunkard and thieves! Do you actually believe that those who are going to co-rule in the heavens with Jesus didn't at one time were murderous, a drunkard, thieves INCLUDING homosexual????? Before you decide to judge ANYONE religion read 1Corinthians 6:9, 10 but 11 is the eye-catcher. From your unnecessary comments, I can tell you didn't bother to research the Scriptures.

You misunderstood everything just like any group of people under mind control. No one is talking about 'perfection' here or 'judging' of other religions. What everyone is talking about is 'Truth'. Hinduist, Islamist, Catholicism, etc, all have different teachings but are these teachings genuine? Are the teachings the 'Truth'? Or they have been deceived. That is why you have many sincere people in many religions today who are genuinely sincere but because they are in the wrong religion, they are sincerely deceived. Any religion that teaches anything different from the Bible like those mentioned above including Jehovah's Witness is already into false teaching. The devil can give you whatever you want in any religion as long as you allow yourself to be deceived from the truth of what the Bible says about God and His son Jesus Christ. And just a little tweak with the Truth is enough for the devil. Why the Jehovah Witness and Islam are particularly dangerous is that they prohibit their members from seeking the truth on their own or asking sincere questions.

I remember giving a religious track to a Jehovah witness girl sometimes ago and I was shocked at her reaction. It was as if I was handling her live bomb or that I was about to stab her. She was so petrified I thought she's going to faint. (Not that she had received it from my hand, but just the sight of it)

Any religion can help its adherents to be 'healed', be 'righteous' 'change life' etc, but will such religion lead to heaven or hell fire?

JWs are more controlled by fear than love (generally speaking). They are insular in their organization with everyone/everything outside of it, potentially under Satan's control. Fear of Armageddon and reward of Paradise are root motivators for fleshly good works, not transformation by the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I'm going to guess that you are Catholic. And from your comments, YOU didn't do research on your own religion before judging mine. Jesus Christ said it best when he said at Matthew 7:1-5 (and I quote) "Stop judging that you may not be judged: for with the judgement YOU ARE judging, YOU WILL be judged, and with the measure that YOU ARE measuring out, they WILL measure YOU. Why, then, do YOU look at the straw in your brother's eye but do not notice the rafter in your OWN eye? Or how can YOU say to your brother, 'Allow me to remove the straw from your eye,' when look! a rafter is in YOUR OWN EYE???" (Here is the catcher) Hypocrite! First remove the rafter from YOUR OWN EYE, and then YOU can see clearly how to remove the straw from your brother's eye. This was Jesus Christ quoting, not I. I just simply pointed out to you that none of us are perfect and this includes YOU and I... We ALL make mistakes!

I am a concerned biblical Christian, never false JW (specifically Evangelical, Protestant, Pentecostal). Catholics have extra/contrabiblical teaching but are more right on the doctrine of God/Christology than JWs (Arian heresy). I have researched many religions for over 40 years. We are called to judge and discern, defend/proclaim truth, but not judge hypocritically or self-righteously. WT needs exposing and the facts from their own literature condemn them. You should not be condoning them and informed people who investigate objectively usually leave or never join.

It is a biblical mandate for all of us to test, judge, discern, defend, proclaim. We do this with Scripture and the wisdom of the Holy Spirit (who is personal, not active force). Only God judges perfectly and ultimately. Jesus did not say to not judge, but to not judge falsely and hypocritically.

Of course I can admit my shortcomings. To objectively expose the destructive beliefs and practices of Mormons, JW's, Scientologists, Muslims, etc. is speaking truth in love and a moral obligation.

JW's are infamous for condemning and judging their own, other religions, unbelievers, etc. The problem is that they judge falsely and hypocritically too often.

Apostate is a pejorative, mind control term to shut down critical thinking. Most counter-cult people were never JW's, but are concerned Christians or former-JW's who now know the truth about their former deception. Those who are deceived do not think they are. See cult expert Steven Hassan (former Moonie) BITE model of mind control/indoctrination that fully applies to JW, Scientology, Mormon, etc.

You really are brainwashed??? You poor thing you!!! This is from the Scriptures, not my words but God. 1Timothy 3:8,9,13. Now in the way that Jan'nes and Jam'bres opposed Moses, so these (this refers to ALL apostates) also go on opposing the truth. Such men are completely corrupted in mind, disapproved as regards the faith. Nevertheless, they will make no further progress, for their foolishness will be very plain to all, as it was with those two men. But wicked men and imposters (that's you) will advance from bad to worse, misleading and being mislead. Again, this is God's words not mines.

Steve Hassan cult expert with BITE model of mind control identifies JW/WT as a high control destructive cult. The best Christian scholars and apologists in the world refute it as fatally false doctrine in light of Scripture. Any group can misuse Scripture like you are doing above. We can show JWs are indoctrinated and mind controlled (see BITE model). Have you read the secret elder's manual? Why not? I have. Do you know about former Governing Body Raymond Franz and his inside expose of WT? Those deceived do not realize they are. I have perfect freedom in my religion, unlike JWs who must be loyal and obey (compliance, conformity, cognitive dissonance, lack of critical thinking) or else.

WT and Awake from early history to now is a mix of good, bad, ugly, bizarre, ridiculous. We can give Scriptures endlessly in context (unlike WT proof texting out of context). WT is full of logical fallacies, false teaching, etc. It does not matter how big the circulation is (it has a captive audience of millions of JWs who must read it and get it to give out...much of which ends up trashed and unread). WT history is 100% failure rate of prophetic speculation that has ruined lives, endless flip flops on teachings in the name of new light to justify past error, etc. They lack credible scholarship, misquote credible scholars, quote fringe, liberal, cultic, obscure sources, etc. They are simplistic, not scholarly. This can all be demonstrated from WT literature over the years (that you are forbidden now to believe, promote, look at critically).

Sure JW are the true and only religion people hate for no reason...

They are not and never cultists,

They don't shun people who leave the organization but shun people who refuse to turn around. Even at that they provide full support for them.

It's a pity that some people for no reason hate the truth..

The changes in their believes or modifications made in their teachings are obvious sign that they are completely different from all other religions who never change their fales teachings even though they see the full convincing evidence that it is COMPLETELY WRONG.

The truth about life is this:

If you are poised to find negativity in anything you will see it...

Even the life we live, the environment we live, people we meet daily, the government, and even we ourselves are full of negative things...

But we won't because of that over look the obvious good ones around us in life.

The haters are free to hate, the accusers are free to talk, but the fact remains that, no matter what we do in life we shall always see haters for No reason.

If you don't understand the organization and their teachings or if you suddenly grew up to hate the organization and their teachings, you just need to have a full rethink of how zealous these people are and how pure they want to keep the truth, God's word, before unleashing the Venom from your mouth.

Till date JW remains the only organization using JEHOVAH in their name... SMH

But have you guys ever asked why.?

The God of this system of things have been doing great job by blinding people's eyes from the truth because the prophecy must be fulfilled,

If you think it's by chance they use JEHOVAH in their name, Google or find any denomination around you that have existed for 10 years with Jehovah written on their sign board!

They will shut down in no time... GOD IS WITH JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES and only those blinded by Satan can't be able to see this!

Yes surprisingly I am not a witness/member, but for the sake of the truth, I am posting this. Let those with eyes see and those with eyes hear. It may be too late for people to turn in for this opportunity if they keep focusing on the negativities which are being instigated by haters or people who simply want to do everything possible to discourage the right minded ones from knowing the truth

Mr. William, I am a person with a strong character, but I'm also passive, with a great sense a humor. But one thing about me that has not changed is the fact that I cannot be controlled or manipulated. Not my parents, nor my kids and definitely no religion. Although I am a JW, I followed and obey God's law via the Bible. There are many people like me that tries to the utmost to live by Bible standards, it has nothing to do with JW.

You are forbidden to think independently, differ from current WT teaching, deviate in any way. The fear of Armageddon and disfellowshipping controls you (e.g. time cards for field service). The false hope of Paradise earth also keeps you in line. Shunning is emotional manipulation and blackmail. You are not free, but think you are.

How come then JW's are the most enlightened, best students, most honest workers? Clearly, you need to understand what you are speaking about.

Shunning is communal condemnation and rejection of immorality, which is welcomed in your churches and practiced by your pastors.

JWs are chosen people, PROOF in Isaiah 43:9,10 as proclaimed by God himself amidst all people and nations.

Jesus is a JW, PROOF at Revelation 1:5 his disciples are JWs as well as expected because their leader is, PROOF at Acts 1:8so how about you where in the Bible are you?

LOGIC: If you are not chosen then you are in the opposite...denied, refused or rejected.

All kinds of groups have read their groups and leaders back into verses that have nothing to do with them (e.g. Herbert W. Armstrong, C.T. Russell/Rutherford JW, Joseph Smith/Mormon, Mary Baker Eddy Christian Science, etc.

Rutherford did not adopt the verse in Is. 43 for his cult until the 1930s (what took Jehovah so long to think of this?!). The verse is about ISRAEL. The NT Church shows a total shift to the name of Jesus. We are to be witnesses of Him (Acts 1:8). This is not a contradiction if Jesus is Jehovah in the flesh (and He is).

You are begging the question/circular reasoning logical fallacy to think a new religion invented by C.T. Russell fulfills Is. 43. It is a nonsensical as WT quoting verses from Revelation (context is future Tribulation period) and applying it to WT conventions before WW II, etc. !?

Jesus was an orthodox Jew who founded Christianity. There is no historical precedent (except condemned Arianism in 4th century) for JW beliefs. The founder C.T. Russell would be disfellowshipped now. Rutherford has the biggest influence in shaping modern JWs. They are not biblical, historical, Christianity with JW evolving a new religion over time just like Joseph Smith did with Mormonism around the same time.

You wrongly assume JW's are the truth. This is an eternally fatal mistake. They are a pseudo-Christian cult that denies biblical, historical, orthodox Christianity. If you knew the Bible and Church history, you would run screaming from this high control group that ruins lives with pedophilia coverups, false teachings, harsh shunning leading to suicides, blood issues leading to innocent deaths, etc.

I'm not going to continually debate this however I do feel compelled to make certain points for those that have an open mind and who are GENUINELY seeking God and the truth of what he deserves, and requires from mankind whom he created.

1st No perfect man has ever walked the earth except for Jesus Christ. MOST sensible people know this.

2nd The second of Corinthians 13:5 says keep testing whether you are in the faith. (Meaning research, learn, prove to yourself what you are learning and the facts are genuine.) There is nothing wrong with research but once you decipher what's right and wrong and what's truth, why waste time with untruth. (I don't want to be around garbage after I have bagged it up and put it out)

3rd Hebrews 12:11 tells us "No discipline at present seems to be joyous but it is painful, and yet after it yields peaceable fruit...." Proverbs 3:11 "My son, do not REJECT the discipline of God (Jehovah) and do not LOATHE his reproof...For he disciplines those he loves. ..."But keep making straight paths for your feet"

1 Corinthians 5:9-13. "Stop mixing in the company of those who called themselves a "brother" ...Remove the wicked man from among yourselves "

This is scriptural direction from our creator who knows what is best for us. And it's only for those who are NOT accepting discipline, but rather rejecting it and not trying to straighten the paths for their feet.

4th Matthew 24:36-Nobody knows the day or the hour but the father. This has been told and this scripture has been brought out for DECADES and I'm 53!

5th I know firsthand when someone confided about a form of abuse the family had to go to the police and report it themselves, otherwise the overseers had a scriptural and moral obligation to report it. There were no coverups and it was scriptural to keep the organization clean because of the sins of imperfect men.

6th Cult definition-"a relatively small group of people having religious beliefs or practices regarded by others as strange or sinister." I wouldn't call more than 8 million small and I definitely wouldn't call witnesses sinister. If you do further research cults are local not WORLD WIDE.

My point. It is clear that if you are disciplined by Jehovah it is not joyous but you have 2 options. You can reject it, loath it and speak abusively of the people who are genuinely trying to serve him or you can accept it as a form of love, recognize it for what it is and commit and prove to yourself and him that you want to turn back around instead of being back around the garbage you once threw out.

I have never been a JW, so I am not an apostate from false JW religion (a biblical apostate is not someone who leaves a false group, but someone who leaves true Christianity). You are making an ad hominem attack and not dealing with the evidence. Salvation is in the person and work of Jesus, YHWH in the flesh, not loyalty to a manmade organization led by 8 corrupt men.

Do you even read the responses given to you with scriptures? I come from a catholic background and even I can understand their responses as opposed to you. You continue to quote imperfect men and these "Cultists" respond with biblical scriptures. You say something and they respond logically with the bible yet you ignore what is being said it seems. Just wondering when you're gonna address the scriptures shared to you.

You don't have to be a JW to know Jehovah, Jah, YHWH etc is different than Jesus... There's many people that know this now. It's been debunked. Even Jesus said multiple times that his Father a higher spirit sent him. SMH. My family is catholic and even we know this... Yer behind on yer understanding Mr Huget. Jehovah, Jesus, Satan, etc are all spirits or energies. Jah is the ultimate spirit /Dynamic Energy. The Big Boss if you will. Jesus is another spirit. The most high ranking one after Jah. The VP whom he sent down to give a model to follow or map to a better life. Even satanists know and recognize the right order of these spirits.

The trinity idea came from pagan origin. Many catholics know this today yet don't care because leaving tradition isn't the easiest thing as opposed to JW's that are open to change when they see they made a mistake. I've spoken to many JW's. They're not trying to brainwash me. They're simply trying to share knowledge from the research they have done. The dots they have connected so to speak. They're good people that want to worship God the way he asks. And he asks for us not to do a lot of things like consume blood etc.

They're not even a religion or cult. They're just a massive group of people that study the bible yet had to be recognized legally as a religion because of the large number of students. They don't believe in religion yet they believe in spirituality and following Jehovahs requests to the T just as Noah and other faithful servants from the past. They want to do just as God says faithfully.

Seems you just want to pose arguments versus reason with people. When Charles Russell dabbled in masonry etc he was on a quest of understanding. He didn't know any better at the time. When he understood the origins or more details of what he was studying, he stopped. He had great zeal yet it wasn't in the right place yet. Just like the Apostle Paul whom persecuted and killed many christians before becoming one himself. Paul had great zeal in thinking he was doing something in Gods name when clearly he wasn't.

So again, sure Charles T. Russell may have dabbled a bit in masonry at first yet he was simply a pebble in a pond that started doing bible research in a quest to understand life and our creator.

There are lots of things you say simply to attack. Can you have a normal conversation responding to what is said? Please feel free to use your bible with scriptures that make sense towards the conversation and stop quoting other imperfect men with the same views. What is Gods view of things is most important.

I could go point by point and spend years with you and the Bible. JWs study a sectarian perversion NWT universally panned by all credible Greek scholars. They read it through the eyes of ever changing fallible WT literature. They deny biblical, historical, orthodox Christianity and are wrong on more than they are right on. There is a wealth of info to dismantle WT, but the new frontier is how to deal with the mind control that enslaves people and keeps them from objectively and critically looking at their own beliefs and practices in light of logic and Scripture. A question for you, William. By credible do you mean those Greek scholars who are in the pockets of the universities and their cash patrons? If that's what you are saying then you should know that only JWs Greek scholars are credible and the rest are paid to say what the patrons want to hear, just like people like you.

They read the Greek language through the eyes of crooks and refuse to admit they are wrong even in thnoresence of mountains of evidence to the contrary.

You ND your church mafia bosses deny Historical Christianity (29CE – c.100CE).And you are flat out wrong about every single things you still about the Bible.

You have blinded people for millennia but Jah's help your steangle hold over the masses are loosening because of the truth preaching we are doing... exposing all your lies used to control people and keep them ignorant. Is. 43 was adopted by evil Rutherford in the 1930s to keep JW's excited with something new and to separate them even more from 'Christendom'. The passage is about ISRAEL (OT), not the Church/Body of Christ (NT). There is a profound shift from YHWH to Jesus (who is Jehovah in the flesh, so trusting Jesus is trusting God). Acts 1:8 IS about Church Age believers.

Other false groups have read their own leaders and groups back into Bible verses (bad eisegesis vs sound exegesis). Is. 43 has nothing to do with JW's or any other group claiming some connection (except OT Jews).

And you are not leading into eternal life, contrary to what you have been convinced of, but like the billions other, you're blindly walking into Gehenna, my friend. You call Trinity truth? Wow a pagan doctrine recopied from Babylonian temple from the Egyptian temples in Africa? Since when did exposing brainwashing been ar hominem?

The WT booklet on 'Should you believe in the trinity' was so full of dishonest pseudo-scholarship, misquotes, errors, that they pulled it. I went through it with photoreprints of the actual quotes in context to expose its lies (published source). WT anti-trin views display ignorance of church history, Scripture, Councils, etc.

godru, Often when people say JWs are misquoting it turns out that they are merely complaining about their propaganda being left out of the quote. Of course very one knows Trinity is paganism. And those who still stubbornly hold on to such beliefs are either ignorant of history or are so dishonest to admit that they have been teaching pagan doctrine all along.

And all this hatred is nothing else but the fulfilment of Bible prophecy, "You will be hated because of my name" and because your lives will condemn you, you will not be able to deal with the people that are at least trying to do the right thing, and disfellowshipping is a blessing, even you put the wrongdoers away, look at your prisons, there is no more room, they are full, they need more of them to keep them away!

Other false groups claim persecution and hatred when they are exposed as false. It is a cultic mentality. WT has also said it is a public service, not persecution, to point out facts about false groups (but they hypocritically do not apply it to themselves). DF is emotional manipulation/blackmail, destructive, punitive, controlling, not the biblical, redemptive discipline practiced by biblical, balanced groups (WT is high control cult).

WT has said it is a PUBLIC SERVICE to expose false teaching/teachers, NOT PERSECUTION. JWs, Mormons, Scientologists, etc. claim persecution when their lies are exposed. True Christians dying at the hands of Muslims, communists, dictators, etc. are the real ones being persecuted (JWs have been persecuted, but it is not a sign they are true).

True Christians are far more persecuted than JWs are. Far more Christians are martyred than JWs ever will be. All kinds of adherents in false and true religions are persecuted. Im so glad about reading that, it just goes to show Jehovah is inspiring the faithful and discreet slave class to warn us of these conditions to come, just as he inspired the bible writers as confirmed in 2 Tim 3:16,17 "all scripture is inspired of God, beneficial for teaching, setting things straight" If ONLY more people would take notice of Jehovah Gods Warnings given in the bible then they might escape the Great Tribulation shortly to come! Matthew 24:21,22 says "for then there will be great tribulation such as has not occurred since the world's beginning until now, no, nor will occur again. In fact, unless those days were cut short, no flesh would be saved; but on account of the chosen ones those days will be cut short" Romans 10:12 tells us "For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek. There is the same Lord over all, who is rich toward all those calling on him" BUT ADVISES IN 13 "Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved.

Those replying might be getting harder with more light, but there are lurkers who may be more open to leaving or not joining false WT. As well, iron sharpens iron and we can help fellow believers think critically and apologetically in dealing with real JW's in their own communities, speaking truth in love/grace. It is a tool for the Holy Spirit to use. This is a short list of heresy: 1. Hellfire by a the sadistic Creator 2. The cross, the alleged 'knife' used to kill God's son, can be an icon 3. Trinity, the vomit from paganism 4. All righteous people go to heaven. Should I go on? Many have left JW? Do you even check Google ? Did you not know that recently JW was said to be the fastest religious group growing in the US? Wake up from your slumber, my friend.

Everlasting conscious torment is separation of sinner from holy God. It is not medieval, sadistic torture, but flows from the love of God (JWs are wrong about soul, death, hell, annihilation, 144K, etc.).

The cross is not an icon, but a reminder of His ignominious death for us. Why assume every Christian is a Catholic?! There is no historical or exegetical basis for torture stake vs cross (WT used to have symbol of cross while claiming to be led by Jehovah). Either way, this is insignificant compared to denying the Deity and physical resurrection of Christ.

Trinity is the biblical, historical, orthodox view from the beginning. You are guilty of the condemned heresy of Arianism, a later attack on truth. WT has revisionist ideas about church history and Scripture. They also routinely make straw man arguments about trinity being 3 gods, 3 headed gods, modalism/Sabellianism, etc. (They lack credibility and scholarship).

Heaven is not limited to 144K and Jesus did not return invisibly in 1914. WT views on these things have changed many times due to their continuous false prophecies. As well, Christians do believe in a heavenly destiny and an earthly kingdom (but do not limit heaven to 144K based on taking 2 verses out of context).

The WT Memorial is a sad joke (Jn. 3:3 NWT unless ANYBODY....).

Many groups claim to be the fastest growing. JW's say they are true because they grow and are large. When it is pointed out that they have a high turn over rate and low retention, they then say few are chosen?! JW's are NOT the fastest growing. Mormonism is false and twice as large as JW's. My Pentecostal adherents are much faster growing globally in a shorter period of time numbering in hundreds of millions (vs 8+ million JW's). JW's are stagnant in countries with internet access and no longer publish their annual yearbook due to negative growth patterns. They are closing branch offices and kingdom halls in large numbers. Islam is 1.8 billion and fast growing. Does that make it true?! (you are guilty of a logical fallacy).

Separation from God? Liar. What you are doing is, you realized, just like the evolutionists, that your teaching about hellfire is unbiblical and a complete historical pagan copy nd padte and so you now say, it is a separation from God not burning. This is the fallacy of 'shifting goal post'. This is what liars do that's why I call you a liar because you are a liar and so I have no problem with calling you such.

There is only a limited NOT INFINITE number of people who will go to heaven. The infinity belief is a comedy joke. In fact the churches are totally wrong about everything, except that they need more money always. Ghost, hellfire, trinity, war, politics and voting, etc, etc, etc, all lies borrowed from African religion.

Trinity is a false idea that says that God has three heads, all individuals being equal. Of course, I agree with you that you people do not have clear doctrine on trinity. Every single church has its ownnlying version about this pagan doctrine. Of course, what do you expect of a lie not supported by Scripture? Lies are always complicated.

We claim we are true because we are large? Fallacy: straw man. Yes, we are growing is proof of God's blessing. Other groups claiming to be growing fast is a fallacy of begging the question. Do you even remember what brought this point? Try to make relevant replies.

JWs are stagnant? Liar. We are growing in every single nation on this Earth. You need to understand, notwithstanding, that numbers is not what God counts otherwise your billions of followers in the churches would not be the blind prisoners that they are.

Hello my dear brothers,

How are you all doing today?

Reading through your various posts and comments all in defence to our beliefs warms my heart. May Jehovah continue to bless you all for your service and zeal in his work. Keep it up dear brothers "remembering that our labor is not in vain in connection with the Lord" (1st Cor. 15:58)

Regarding the comments, I have this to say.

1. We know we live in the "last days" (2nd Tim 3:1), and we are well informed of the signs and times. As a matter of fact we also know why these people say these things about us (2nd. Tim 3: 8 & 9).

2. We also know the sequence of things to come, because Jehovah and our King have forewarned us.

3. The words recorded in 2nd Cor. 4: 3, 4 & 5 proves true in their case.

4. We should also remember the words at Psalm 37:1, 2, 7 & 10.

5. Reading through the comments of one of the people opposing us I saw where the fellow stated "If the person does not show repentance to the Elders", brothers we know we do not confess our sins to Elders instead to Jehovah, and he disciplines us as he sees fit. That tells me he is an apostate (1st. Cor 5:13).

With all this I don't think we should respond anymore to their comments.

Instead let us focus all our energy to finding the "deserving ones" (Mt 10:11).

May Jehovah continue to bless our effort in his ministry, for very soon the words of Psalms 37:10 will come true.

JWs wrongly assume that valid criticism of false WT is an attack on Jehovah. They wrongly identify a manmade organization lead by arrogant, ignorant, fallible men as necessary loyalty to be right with God. They wrongly think there is no salvation outside of the org when other groups like Christadelphians believe very similar (and are also wrong). Salvation is in a person, the Lord Jesus Christ, God with a face, the invisible made visible. A counterfeit Christ and false gospel leads to anathema/eternal condemnation (Gal. 1:6-9; 2 Cor. 11:4; Jn. 14:6; Acts 4:12; I Jn. 5:11-13; Rom. 10:9-10; Jn. 1:1; 5:18; 8:58; 10:30-33; 20:28; Phil. 2:5-11; Col. 1; Heb. 1; Alpha/Omega/First/Last; Is. 9:6; 10:21; etc.

An attack on JWs IS an attack on Jehovah/Yehowa/Jeova/Yahweh/Cheova because we are the people of Jehovah. On the other hand, the arrogant churches are owned and managed and operated and run by the drug lords and politicians. No wonder some of your pagan leaders own fat bank accounts with fat jaws – fat because of the drug money. Truly, you are worshippers of men not God. And go learn, God does not have a face, thou he may appear in human appearance. Those who want salvation must come to the people of God and believe in Jesus, not your so-called crooked saints, priests, pastors, etc.

The JWs are defending the indefensible and resorting more to personal attacks (argumentum ad hominem), not substantial replies (www.jwfacts.org).

JWs have a 150 year track record of failed prophetic speculation promoting fear of Armageddon and hope of Paradise to keep those under their control working hard for the manmade organization. The last days technically started in the first century. Jesus did not return invisibly in 1914 (based on wrong WT date of 607 vs 586 B.C. and changes due to failed prophecy by Russell and SDAs, in the 1800s). Any false group can use your verses and logic to justify their continued cognitive dissonance in the face of truth exposing the lie (see Steve Hassan's BITE model of mind control). Other groups use the same verses so you merely beg the question (circular reasoning).

Elders, judicial committees, etc. are ruining lives directed by Governing Body (I have read the secret elder manual 'Shepherding the Flock of God', yet most JWs have not and thus remain under control by men vs God).

JWs cannot defend their beliefs. They have been answered over and over by credible scholars (not just former JWs). The bigger issue is the mind control that keeps people from thinking critically. You are told to look for sheep-like ones who are not familiar with WT history or the Bible. Vulnerable people get sucked into cults. Those who objectively research and are informed generally do not join JWs or leave after they have joined. WT has much to hide (pedophilia coverups, harsh shunning leading to suicides, false teachings and practices, unbiblical/unscientific blood views leading to innocent sacrifice, etc.) and this is why they forbid independent research.

You are a victim, but without excuse for following men vs God and His Word (NWT is a sectarian perversion read through the fallible eyes of WT writers).

William, I hold a spuspicion that you are using fancy Latin phrases to impress us into thinking that you know what you are speaking about.. On the contrary, the manner and context in which you use these terms seem to indicate that you have an average understanding of the things of which you speak. For example, you use the expression argumentum ad hominem (Eng., argument at or against the person) to support the erroneous view that exposing one's (in this case, your) erring beliefs and apologetic propaganda is equivalent to attacking you. The problem is this is what we do as JWs- we expose lies and deceptions by you and your fellow billions broad gate comrades.Are you trying to deny this god-given responsibility?

Concerning failed prophecy, JWs have never once in the thousands of years of our existence, starting from Abraham and Noah, made a single prophecy. I advice you to have an accurate knowledge of the difference between prophecy and understanding of it (i.e, prophecy). For your correction, we have had some misunderstanding of prophecies which we did acknowledge and we habe als had many accurate understanding of prophecies which came true and through. Concerning your churches however, you need to only do a little search in Wikipedia and you would find an endless list of, note, not failed but lying and false prophecies by your Christndom churches. In some cases, they were not even based on understanding of Scripture but merely made out of a desire to be seen as divinely inspired. Some were likewise made based on the reliance upon demons for their future fulfillment which turned out to be huge failure.

Mind control? Yes, like the one practiced by the churches where they prevent people from reading the Bible for themselves or deliberately fail to teach them the truth therein.

I read a a book written by a woman of God Ms. Sylvia Browne in her book titled 'End of Days' Predictions and prophecies written in 2008 in which one of the page she predict thus 'In around 2020 a severe pneumonia like illness will spread throughout the glob, attacking the lungs and the bronchial tubes and resisting all known treatments. Almost more baffling than the illness itself will be the fact that it will suddenly vanish as quickly as it arrived, attack again 10 years later, and the disappear completely'. This looks more this outbreak of 'coronavirus'.

Do we take some of these predictions and prophecies serious. This prediction to me seems that God is real and talks to some people and not to all people. This prediction is almost not coincidence but reality as we are experiencing at the moment and it is touching the globe.

It reminds me when you read the book of Joshua and there was a time God ask him to for want He (god) will do for him and he ask the Lord to hold the sun stand still until he wipe the Armaliakites. When the NASA wants to go the moon and there was a shortage of time after NSA calculation. They however, revert to the book of Joshua to get the time right. Is all these myths or reality?
