2. Description of research activity undertaken

Research Activity *

- Bibliographic research using the following keywords: language of religion, religion and language, language and migration (in English, Italian, and Spanish). Conducted between the end of 2023 and updated every four months until October 2025. The bibliographic research was gradually narrowed down to papers and volumes focusing on qualitative empirical work, with a focus on our country and, where possible, Latin American communities.
 - Co-design, in consultation with other members of the unit, of the methodology and qualitative tools for field research (November 23-March 24).
 - Preparation of materials for Ethical Clearance at UniGe (March 24).
 - Observation and conducting of interviews and discussion groups, focusing on people of Latin American origin (April-June 2024).
 - Analysis of qualitative empirical data collected through research activities, in particular interviews and discussion groups with people of Latin American origin (September 24-September 25).
